Drinks Bill Scheduled for Today

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. Q. Byrum Hurst of Hot Springs was scheduled to call up the mixed drink bill for a vote in the Arkansas Senate today as the General Assembly attempted to push for a final adjournment today.

However, capitol sources said it was doubtful that the legislature could wind up business today, predicting instead a Memorial Day recess and final adjournment Friday.

Both Houses reconvened at 1 p.m. today.

Hurst delayed a vote on the mixed drink bill Tuesday, but continued to express confidence for passage in the Senate. He said he did not call the bill to a vote Tuesday because of the considerable time needed to debate it.

Meanwhile, the House continued its assault on Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's tax package Tuesday by defeating his third and last tobacco tax proposal.

The House defeated 27-62 a bill to impose a 15 per cent excise tax on tobacco products other than cigarettes and cigars.

Monday the House defeated two other tobacco tax proposals — a 3-cent cigarette tax increase and a 15 per cent excise tax on cigars and cigarillos.

The House also continued its opposition to a proposed tax on the transfer of real property. Rep. George Nowotny of Fort Smith withdrew his version of a real estate transfer tax bill after Rep. Jack S. Oakes of Augusta pointed out that he had failed to remove a provision holding recording clerks liable for failure to comply with the law.

The Board of Directors approved a proposal from Beam Brothers, operators of the asphalt plant located East of Hope and resurfacing Highway 67, to resurface the downtown area. Their proposal was to resurface the area for $9.75 per ton of asphalt mix. It is estimated that the job will require 15 hundred tons of material.

In other action the Board adopted a resolution authorizing the Police Department to establish parallel parking on the west side of Elm Street, between Division and 3rd, to replace the present angle parking at this area. French Reds Call Another Labor Strike

By RODNEY ANGOVE
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — The Communists called another labor demonstration in Paris today, the 13-day-old general strike continued to spread, and banned student agitator "Danny the Red" Cohn-Bendit dyed his hair black and slipped back into France.

The Communist-led General Confederation of Labor, France's biggest, planned a massive slogan-chanting parade to back up its demands, including a 12 per cent pay raise. It called the package offered Monday by the government and private industry "notoriously insufficient." That one included a 10 per cent raise and reduction of the work week from 46-47 hours to 40.

New walkouts came at France's major nuclear plant, Pierrelatte, and at the French news agency, Agence France Press. The strike at the nuclear plant may delay the test of France's first hydrogen bomb, scheduled to be held in the Pacific this summer.

Coal miners and bank employees voted to accept the settlement rejected by most other workers, but this did not send them back to work. They decided to stay off the job in support of the other strikers.

Red-haired, 23-year-old Cohn-Bendit, leader of the radical student group that launched the student agitation from which the crisis stemmed, appeared at a post-midnight news conference at the Sorbonne and declared: "There will be continuous violence as long as we live in a capitalist society. In no case must we give up the streets to the police."

Cohn-Bendit, born in France to German-Jewish refugees, had been to Holland and West Germany for speeches. Because he uses a West German passport, the government jumped at the chance to bar him from France, and two destructive student riots in Paris resulted.

Cohn-Bendit said that after blackening his hair, he crossed the border "through French and German woods" but would give no details.

The Ministry of Interior said it knew of Cohn-Bendit's arrival but had not decided whether to try to expel him.

The government, meanwhile, made public the text of the reform law which French voters will accept or reject at a referendum June 16. President Charles de Gaulle has said he would resign if the vote is negative.

Nevertheless, "we shall continue patiently to see whether the Paris talks shall yield anything in the way of constructive results," Johnson said.

purchase by low-income families in the next year—along with 90,000 rental units for the poor.

These would provide more than half of the 300,000 government-subsidized housing starts for these families which the administration has projected for fiscal 1969 starting July 1.

Congressional experts emphasized, however, that the new programs offer no instant miracles.

They noted the administration has projected actual expenditures of only $6.9 million for the home-ownership plan in the year ahead and $5.2 million for the apartments.

This would mean very little housing actually would become available during the upcoming fiscal year.

Under the plan, the government would subsidize the monthly mortgage payments by paying all of the interest charges above 1 per cent in the case of those with the lowest incomes.

Many home buyers now must pay 6 1/2 per cent or more to get mortgages.

The 303-page omnibus housing bill has dozens of other important provisions.

It includes new money authorizations for many existing programs designed to deal with problems of city slums and the impoverished.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brown were hostesses to the wedding party with a dinner following the rehearsal in their home on the Rosston Road.

At this time the bride and groom presented their gifts to their attendants.

beard, and the surest way to throw one of these old gaffers into a tantrum was for a smart aleck to ask him, "Grandpa, do you sleep with your whiskers under the covers or over them?" His usual tart reply: "That's for me to know, sonny, and you to find out."

Kids in grammar school would spend weeks trying to learn how to wiggle their ears. For some obscure reason they thought that the ability to do this would impress their little girlfriends.

In the days before credit cards, the national motto was "In God We Trust—All Others Cash."

Railroad dining cars were widely believed to serve the best meals in America. And you knew you were in a pretty high-toned restaurant if it kept the pies in a glass case to protect them.

Mother wept secretly when her young son returned—hot, dirty and boastful—from his first overnight Boy Scout hike in the woods. She knew now there was another man in the family, and things wouldn't be quite the same again ever.

If a farm family was short of cash, the doctor was willing to accept a sack of fresh vegetables in lieu of his usual $3 fee.

Those were the days! Remember?

Anesthesia by Electricity Is Studied

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

MENLO PARK, Calif. (AP) — Here in a group of nondescript buildings, scholars are attempting to perfect anesthesia by electricity, to forecast earthquakes, repair eyes with laser beams, design effective urban transportation systems.

This is the Stanford Research Institute, a 90-acre compound near Stanford University occupied by crowded wooden laboratories, animal compounds and barracks housing, and permeated with intellectual zone.

Stanford is one of at least 14 independent, not-for-profit research and development labs that apply technology to basic research, enabling development of products and systems useful to man.

All these labs, several of them associated but not owned by universities, have their own personnel, facilities and management, and exist primarily for the public interest by contracting research for industry, government and other institutions.

ERI scientists, economists and planners already have made cotton more competitive by devising a fabric that won't absorb dirt, helped modernize banking by developing the first automated check handler and aided several foreign economies.

A notable result of this type of research is Xerography, the reproduction method that has made the Xerox Co. so profitable. It was developed with a big assist from Battelle Memorial Institute of Columbus, Ohio, the largest of the not-for-profit researchers.

Outfits such as SRI, Battelle, IIT Research of Chicago and Southern Research of Birmingham, Ala., are intellectual isthmuses connecting the academic world of scholars and the practical worlds of business and government.

They fit somewhere between the university owned research facilities and the private contract research firms such as Arthur D. Little. They are related also to commercial testing labs and to "captive," or government-supported researchers.

Although still doing a very small percentage of all research and development, their influence is great and growing, and has been since the first of them, the Mellon Institute, was founded in Pittsburgh in 1927.

Few jobs are beyond their scope, for their staffs easily are the equal of some universities. Unlike university researchers, however, they are always concerned with practical results. That is their reason for being.

"We are quite able to build up a staff if a project looks worthwhile," said a spokesman for SRI, which has a staff of 3,200, including 1,700 professional researchers.

Since SRI has no sales staff, and since projects suitable to its talents aren't always readily available, researchers have to maintain their own contacts, solicit business and find money for their studies.

Because of this, the not-for-profits, which generally pay no taxes, have been accused of competing unfairly with commercial testing labs and also with soliciting routine projects easily handled in industrial labs.

The response, at least in the case of SRI and several others, has been to pay taxes on income from research not specifically in the public interest, and to forego research whose substance is questionable.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

A MODEST PROPOSAL — SERIAL, IN FACT

Dear Helen: From now until August, society pages will be filled with wedding stories, pictures of brides, etc. Then, along about Christmas, their divorcee announcements will start.

I have a suggestion: Why not hold these wedding stories and pictures for a year — then if the couple is still together, publish them, with congratulations on their first anniversary? This might save a great deal of space, as by that time at least one-fourth of the marriages would be on the rocks — or so close they'd want no publicity.

Also, I think wedding presents should be sent at least one year after the ceremony. We'd save a lot there too! Why donate to a temporary set-up?

What do you think? — MIKE

Dear Mike: With the "love and romance" set, your ideas will be about as popular as Ralph Nadar at General Motors.

But touche, anyway. You've got a good think goin' there, friend. — H

Dear Helen: Mini-skirts will probably last out the summer, and females may not cover the knees for several years. So why doesn't somebody invent a "knee-girdle?"

A gal's worst leg problem is often the fat bulge on the inside of her knee — and it gets worse after 30! So why not an invisible elasticized nylon band that would hold it in, or smooth it out? Of course bending the knee would be a little tricky. — INVENTOR

Dear Inventor: I've got a better idea? Why don't fat-kneed women — especially over 30 — consult their full-length mirrors and "skirt the issue?" — H

Dear Helen: I was at a wedding last week. The bride was

YOU HAVE A SECOND CHANCE — MAYBE!

In the backwash of the wind and hail storms which have struck Southwest Arkansas recently, the Anderson-Frazier Insurance Agency has reacted quickly to the need for our claim services by our assureds. We have called in the General Adjustment Bureau (and they have been marvelous) and every company adjuster we could beg and borrow in order to get to everyone having damage as soon as possible. We are proud of the job our adjusters are doing.

One sad thing has come to light, though, as we handle these claims. Many property owners do not carry enough insurance to recover full value of their destroyed property. If you're one of the lucky ones who has been given a second chance, please be smart and take advantage of it. Catastrophe can strike at any time! We urge you to contact us now and let us review the coverage on your home and other property.

Giants in 3-1 Victory Over Cards

By HAL BUCK

Associated Press Sports Writer Jim Maloney made the baseball do tricks and Gaylord Perry turned in some sleight of hand too. But the antics one of Dave Giusti's pitches went through topped them all.

Giusti sabotaged an otherwise strong job with a costly error that allowed one run to score and set up another in Atlanta's 3-1 victory over Houston Tuesday night.

Cincinnati's Maloney hurled a sharp one-hitter, blanking Los Angeles 7-0 and Perry of San Francisco finished with a two-hitter and a 3-1 victory over St. Louis.

The only other National League games scheduled—New York at Pittsburgh and Chicago at Philadelphia—both were rained out.

In the American League, Baltimore edged Chicago 3-2 in a 10-inning game at Milwaukee, Minnesota topped Cleveland 3-1, Oakland tripped Boston 3-1 and Detroit topped California 4-1. Washington's game at New York was postponed by rain.

Houston was leading Atlanta 1-0 in the fourth inning when Sonny Jackson and Hank Aaron opened with singles. Then Giusti delivered a pitch to Joe Torre that was destined to make the rounds of the ball park before it was through.

Torre lined it for a base hit to left, scoring Jackson. Aaron raced for third base and Jim Wynn, Houston's left fielder, threw to Bob Aspromonte, the Astros' third baseman.

But the throw sailed past Aspromonte and as Aaron pulled in safely, Torre broke for second. Giusti, backing up third base, grabbed Wynn's throw and fired to second . . . and right on past second . . . as Aaron scored and Torre advanced to third. Deron Johnson's sacrifice fly brought the third run of the inning across.

That was plenty for Pat Jarvis, who pitched a four-hitter and retired 18 Astros in a row over one stretch.

Maloney, who carried a 4.50 earned run average into the game against the Dodgers, was close to untouchable and the top of the Reds' batting order was just about unstoppable.

Maloney struck out 10 and permitted only a fifth inning single by Zolo Versailles. The Reds, meanwhile, rapped 13 hits—12 of them by the first four batters in the order.

Leadoff man Pete Rose had four of the hits and raised his league leading batting average from .351 to .366. Tommy Helms and Alex Johnson had three hits each with Johnson driving in four runs and Helms two. Vada Pinson also had two hits and one RBI.

Bob Gibson sailed through San Francisco's first 15 batters but had his perfect game broken up by Dick Dietz' leadoff homer in the sixth.

One inning later, Ty Cline bloomed a single and Willie Mays' unloaded his eighth home run of the year and the 572nd of his career and the Giants had the Cardinals beaten.

Perry allowed a leadoff double to Lou Brock and nothing more until the seventh when Tim McCarver opened with a triple and was stranded at third base.

Twins Score Win Over Cleveland

By ED SCHUYLER Jr.

Associated Press Sports Writer Cleveland's Sonny Siebert and Bill Rohr pitched seven hitless innings against Minnesota, but their combined effort was sort of like locking the barn after the horse escaped.

Siebert and Rohr didn't yield a hit from the second through the eighth innings Tuesday night at Minnesota, but the Twins touched Siebert for three in the first when they scored all of their runs in a 3-1 victory.

In other American League action, Oakland edged Boston 3-1, Detroit topped California 4-1 and Baltimore nipped the Chicago White Sox 2-1 in 10 innings at Milwaukee. The Washington at New York game was rained out.

Cincinnati blanked Los Angeles 7-0, Atlanta downed Houston 3-1 and San Francisco beat St. Louis 3-1 in a game stopped by rain after eight innings in the National League. Rain postponed the New York at Pittsburgh and Chicago at Philadelphia games.

Minnesota got its first four batters on base against Siebert in the first. John Roseboro doubled and scored on Rod Carew's single. After Harmon Killebrew walked, Tony Oliva doubled in Carew and Killebrew scored on Rich Reese's sacrifice fly.

Siebert then stopped the Twins until the seventh when Rohr took over to complete the nice-going-but-too-late job.

Cleveland scored in the top of the first on Lee Maye's single, a fielder's choice and Tony Horton's double. May and Horton each got three of the seven hits off Jim Perry, who was bailed out of an eighth-inning jam by Al Worthington. It was Worthington's 10th save of the season.

Jim Lonborg, the Cy Young Award winner who broke a leg in a skiing accident, made his first appearance of the season in Boston's losing effort against Oakland.

The big Red Sox right-hander, who was reactivated last weekend, came in two men out and one out in the sixth and got out of the jam. He also pitched the seventh, yielding one hit and no runs.

Ken Harrelson homered for Boston in the second, but Oakland came back with two runs on Jim Pagliaroni's blast in the bottom of the inning.

The Athletics also scored in the sixth on two walks and Joe Rudi's double.

Detroit broke loose for four runs against California's George Brunet in the first inning. Bill Freehan doubled in the first two runs and then scored on Willie Horton's homer.

California got its run in the bottom of the first on two walks and Rick Reichardt's single.

A crowd of 18,748 at Milwaukee saw Baltimore win on Paul Blair's leadoff homer against Hoyt Wilhelm in the 10th.

Baltimore took a 2-0 lead in the third when Curt Blefary was hit by a Tommy John pitch and Curt Motton homered. Chicago scored in the fourth on Luis Aparicio's single, a balk, fly ball and wild pitch. The White Sox tied it in the fifth on Duane Josephson's homer.

John, who allowed only two hits in eight innings, strained a hamstring muscle in his right leg when he fell and rolled over at base while attempting to avoid a tag.

440 relay. Gary Wheelington broke the 100 dash mark in junior high with a 10.4, and William Dillion clocked off a 2:07.1 for a new 880 IHHS standard.

Along with track also came golf, and Danny Reyenga, Terry Hairr, and Ralph Rounton paced the golfers to a 4-6 regular season mark, and the weather-delayed state meet will be held next Thursday at Rebsamen Park in Little Rock.

Last, but certainly not least, is the HHS baseballers. Led by all-state pitcher Dwight Gallo-way, the team went to the state semifinals before losing to eventual champion Fort Smith St. Anne's. With a 14-2 record, the team should be strong again next spring.

Which brings us back to the summertime, when one can look back and hopefully say of his work "a job well done." Having been Star Sportswriter for the past 15 months, this writer has enjoyed it immensely, but he is also looking forward to the day faraway when—we can rest for a day or two, away for a fleeting instant from the Wonderful World of Sports.

30 Piston Cars Qualify at Speedway

By DALE BURGESS

Associated Press Sports Writer INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Thirty drivers of old fashioned piston-engine race cars wound up preliminaries today for Thursday's 52nd 500-mile auto race, by no means conceding the event to three other pilots of favored Lotus turbine cars.

Gordon Johncock of Hastings, Mich., one of the faster qualifiers in a conventional car, predicted a turbocharged Offenhauser would win the race. He has one.

A. J. Foyt Jr. of Houston, last year's winner who is shooting for an unprecedented fourth 500-mile victory, was on record as thinking the Pratt & Whitney powerplants were "a year away."

However, the consensus around Gasoline Alley was that the turbines of Joe Leonard, San Jose, Calif.; Graham Hill, London, England, and Art Pollard, Champion now residing in Houston, Texas, will team with his brother, Roland, of Prescott, Tommy won the only tournament he has entered this year.

Several strong teams from other towns are David and Maurice Orr of Texarkana, Bonnell Birkhead and Bill Milsaps of Little Rock and Dick Jenkins and David Dinwiddle of Little Rock.

Local teams offering strong competition are Lee and Henry Fenwick, Homer Beyerley and Larry Bruce, John and Al Graves and Bill Hairr and Mitchell LaGrone.

Travelers Walloped by Spurs

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Dallas-Fort Worth scored eight runs in the first two innings and trounced the Arkansas Travelers 12-4 in Texas League action Tuesday night.

Jim McDonald blasted a three-run homer in the first inning for the Spurs and Don Walton hit another homer with two men on in the second inning.

In all, the Spurs hit four home runs in the game and Arkansas one.

Arkansas starter Phil Knuckles, who was making his first appearance of the year, yielded the homers and was charged with the loss.

Bob Watkins, who pitched a no-hitter last Friday night at Memphis, was the winner for the Spurs.

The Traveler's only offensive show came in the seventh when Boots Day smacked a two-run homer.

Meanwhile, Shreveport moved into the Eastern Division lead by whipping Memphis 5-2 at Memphis. Shreveport scored four runs in the first inning. Memphis left nine men on base during the game.

In other games Tuesday night, San Antonio nipped Albuquerque 4-3 and El Paso stopped Amarillo 7-1.

Two Division League for the American

By JOE MOOSHIL

Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — The American and National leagues of Hope, Representative Talbot baseball, bitter rivals on and off the field for nearly seven decades, have fought their way into separate systems of operation.

The American League Tuesday approved a two-division league under the banner of progress and the National League, resorting to tradition, remained a one-division league of 12 teams including newcomers Montreal and San Diego.

Both leagues, who will be called into a joint session by Commissioner William Eckert within six weeks, ended their meetings Tuesday, firmly convinced each is on the right path towards the good of the game, the fans and the players.

The AL next year will have an Eastern Division represented by Boston, New York, Baltimore, Washington, Cleveland and Detroit. The Western Division will be made up of Chicago, Minnesota, Kansas City, Oakland, Seattle and California.

They will play a 156-game schedule with the winners of each division meeting in a best-of-5 playoff to determine the World Series representative.

Divisional teams will meet each other 18 times with a 9-9 home-and-road breakdown and then will face members of the other division 11 times a year with a 6-5 home-and-road breakdown. The latter will be reversed to 5-6 every other year to balance home and road games.

Joe Cronin, president of the American League, said his league was in complete harmony on the divisional breakdown.

"You can't sell a 12th place club," said Cronin. "Who wants a lot of second division clubs? The commissioner's job is to have both leagues ready to start the World Series at his discretion, and we will be ready."

"We're a lot of little, quiet guys who are progressive," continued Cronin. "You have to look ahead 20 years and not just next year. Our teams will retain their rivalries and create new ones under the divisional system."

The National League, having expanded to 12 teams only the previous night, appeared totally unprepared to meet the American League plan of two divisions and remained adamant for tradition.

"We don't believe in a playoff system because of the tradition and history of baseball," said President Warren Giles.

"A playoff system would be in contradiction to these traditions," said Giles. "You can have teams finishing fourth or fifth percentage-wise and then playing the champion of the other league in the World Series."

"We do not believe the public will accept this," he continued. "The World Series is the greatest event in sports and it is dangerous to tamper with it."

Of all the world's fuels, both solid and liquid, coal has the greatest amount in reserve, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Jim Dooley Named New Bears Coach

CHICAGO (AP) — Jim Dooley, a 38-year-old businesslike chap with horned rimmed glasses, Tuesday succeeded George Halas as coach of the Chicago Bears.

Halas, 73-year-old National Football League pioneer and the only owner the Bears have had, stepped down as head coach after 39 years at the job Monday.

Halas followed his surprising announcement of quitting the coaching ranks by his not surprising selection of Dooley as his successor.

Dooley has been a member of the Bears for 16 years. A graduate of Miami, Fla., Dooley became a star receiver with the Bears before becoming a coach and gradually worked his way up as Halas' No. 1 aide.

Dooley, who started out as an end coach, became heir apparent to the job two years ago when he replaced George Allen as defensive coach. Allen had left the Bears under a court-challenged protest by Halas to become head coach of the Los Angeles Rams.

Dooley introduced such defensive tactics as flip-flopping tackles and last year came up with the "Dooley shift" in which a fifth defensive back was used as a linebacker in long passing situations.

The Girl Scout Day Camp got underway Monday at Rocky Mound and will continue through the week. The scenes above show some of the girls getting instruction at the camp.

Ease Painful Joints With Rest, Hot Packs

Q—I have synovitis in my right ankle. What can be done for it?

A—Synovitis is an inflammation of the sheath of tissue that surrounds the large tendons where they are attached to a bone near its joint. It may be associated with tuberculosis and other serious diseases of the bones and joints but in most cases is caused by repeated injuries incurred when you make quick, forceful movements. If hot applications, rest and protective bandaging don't relieve it, injecting the joint with hydrocortisone should be tried.

Q—I have capsulitis in my right elbow. What is the best treatment? How long does it usually last? Will it recur?

A—Capsulitis of a joint is closely related to synovitis and bursitis. All are treated in essentially the same way. The duration depends on the severity and your individual response to the treatment used. Recurrences are common so it behooves you to avoid sudden violent movements or injuries to your elbow.

Q—What causes some of my joints to make creaking or grating noises when I move them? Is there a cure for this?

A—Grating sounds in the joints are usually due to arthritic roughening of the joint surface. When these changes have occurred the smooth surface can be restored only by replacing the joint cartilage with a noncorroding metal.

Q—My doctor says I have a frozen shoulder. What does that mean? What can be done to relieve the pain?

A—This is a name given to adhesive or calcified tendinitis, a condition in which the joint is stiff and movement is very painful. The latest treatment is to put the victim to sleep and forcibly break up the adhesions. Hydrocortisone is then injected into the joint. The victim must move the joint in all directions every day. The hydrocortisone will eliminate or greatly reduce the pain but, pain or no pain, the joint must be moved if recurrences are to be prevented.

Q—When I was 5, I had a slight case of poliomyelitis. The doctor told my mother that if I got married I would produce only one sex. I now have three boys and would like a girl. What are my chances?

A—Since poliomyelitis does not affect the sex of your offspring, the chances are 50-50 with each pregnancy.

Group Has a 'Democratic Tax Package'

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Joint Budget Committee of the General Assembly came up with a "Democratic tax package" Tuesday that would satisfy some state agency demands for extra funds.

The committee decided to sponsor a bill to increase the cigarette tax 2 cents a package and to levy a 20 per cent tax on the wholesale price of cigars. The package would satisfy demands for extra funds by the colleges and universities, a $500 increase for teachers, a $5 increase in Welfare payments and an increase in the supplements for nursing homes taking care of welfare patients.

It also would allow the governor to use his contingency fund to meet the most pressing needs of the state prisons.

The committee agreed to introduce the bill only in the Senate because it feared the bill had little chance of passage in the House. Normally, Joint Budget Committee bills go into both houses simultaneously.

The bill would raise an estimated $4,750,000 in new revenue.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said later Tuesday that he would be receptive to a compromise bill calling for a 2-cent increase in the cigarette tax. "Although I would regard it less attractive, I would give it serious and sympathetic consideration if it reached my desk," Rockefeller said.

The House defeated the administration's bill Monday calling for a 3-cent increase on a pack of cigarettes.

Sen. Clarence Bell of Parkin, whose suggestions resulted in the committee bill, said the taxes would not impose a hardship on anyone.

"If you don't want to smoke and pay the taxes, quit smoking," Bell said.

Rep. Jack Oakes of Augusta said the bill would give universities and colleges and the elderly the priority he felt they deserved.

The committee also recommended passage of a bill which would provide an additional $2.3 million for public schools, $2 million for higher education and $700,000 for prisons from existing funds.

Money for public schools was in the bill as introduced in the Senate last week and it would come from the general budget revolving fund.

The Young Dream of the Future, the Aged Dream of the Past

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — The greatest reward of age is memory.

The young delight in fantasies of the future; their busy minds paint pretty picture fables of life as they dream it may be.

But memory is the master painter in the calmer minds of those who have been longer touched by time. It presents in fadeless colors not the scenes of what-may-be but the scenes of what-has-been.

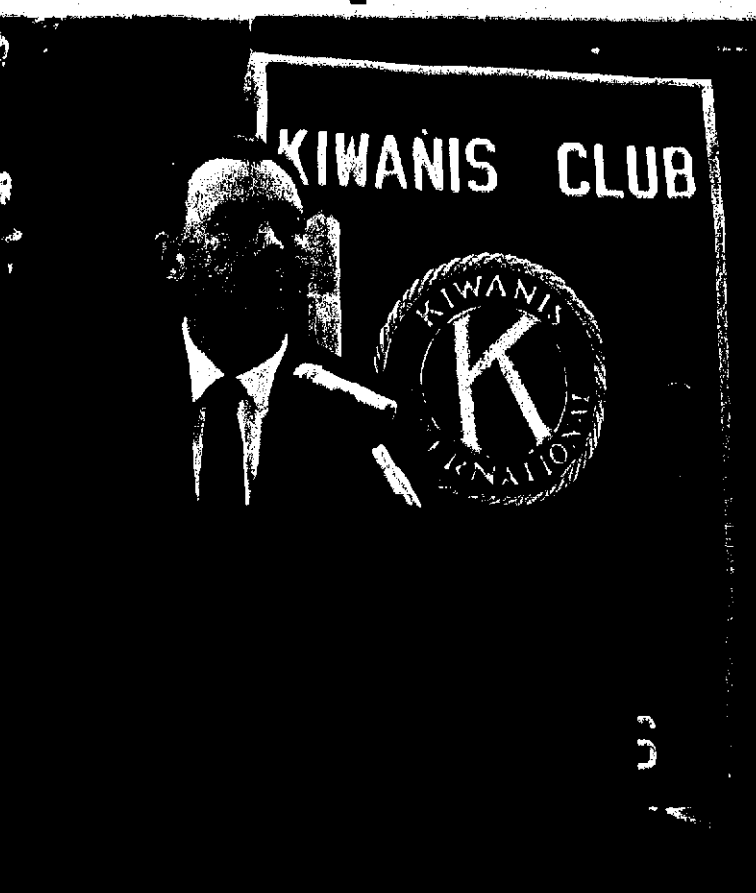

You've trudged many a far step along life's highway yourself if you can look back and remember when—

Some unknown classmate penned an unsigned inscription in your high school yearbook: "Roses are red, violets are blue, somebody loves you—you'll never guess who."

Every kid in the family hated the chore of having to go down in the basement on winter nights and bank the coal fire in the furnace. Who knew what terrible demons lurked in those terrible cellar shadows?

Will Try to Move Talks Up a Stage

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

PARIS (AP) — Ambassador W. Averell Harriman is expected to make a new attempt in coming sessions of the Vietnam peace talks to move them beyond the stage of propaganda exchanges and into meaningful secret discussions on de-escalating the war.

Harriman and his advisers think there is little chance of early agreement from Ambassador Xuan Thuy of North Vietnam to do this. But they insist private diplomacy will have to be employed if the talks are to make any progress.

President Johnson said in Washington Tuesday that the time has come to get away from "fantasy and propaganda" and into "quiet, serious discussions."

While expressing dissatisfaction with the two and a half weeks of negotiations, Johnson declared: "We shall continue patiently to see if the Paris talks can yield constructive results."

Harriman and Thuy meet behind closed doors, but statements are issued afterward and spokesmen for both sides brief

Three months ago life looked bleak for little Cao in the big, strange city of Saigon. His childhood home had been in the countryside in Hau Nghia, west of Saigon, where he rode the backs of the water buffalo as they grazed, or chased after the huge beasts through the rice paddies.

But since the Tet offensive, life for Cao had been one chaotic move after another. From the rice field, where he was tending the buffalo when mortar fragments tore into his legs, he was taken to a U.S. Army hospital at Cu Chi. In the hospital, doctors found it necessary to amputate both legs to save the boy's life.

Then he was moved to Saigon's Cho Ray Hospital. He was there in a crowded ward when some of the heaviest fighting of the Tet offensive took place around it.

After the fighting died down, room was found for Cao at the National Rehabilitation Center, a Vietnamese government institution where 90 per cent of the patients are civilians. The center has highly trained personnel and capabilities for making and fitting new limbs.

Now Cao must learn to use his new legs, and like many of the other patients at the institute, it means a new start in life for him.

LBJ Vows No More Bombing Reduction

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says he's prepared to keep his peace envoys in Paris for an indefinite period but will not further reduce U.S. bombing of North Vietnam without similar restraint by Hanoi.

Johnson's comments at a Tuesday news conference came after he was briefed on the Paris talks by Cyrus R. Vance, top assistant to chief U.S. negotiator W. Averell Harriman.

Vance also briefed top Congress members, after which Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said he was "not discouraged" about peace prospects. But Mansfield voiced hope "the American people realize this is something that will take weeks and maybe months."

Vance plans to return to the French capital late this week. Johnson said it is time for the

The Board of Directors reviewed a proposal of the State Highway Department for connections to the interstate system. The plan would provide a road from the Highway 4 interchange to connect with a road from the Highway 29 interchange in the North part of town, and then South along Edgewood, crossing behind the High School, to join Highway 29 South. Shover Road would be improved to connect Highway 4 with the North-South Road at Edgewood. A group of citizens were at the meeting and offered suggestions about relocating this road somewhere East of Edgewood. They felt this plan would interfere with the development of the school and would pass through an area where right-of-way is very expensive. The Plan-

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese troops battled Viet Cong holdouts today on the southwest side of Saigon as the U.S. Marines reported hurling back two massive North Vietnamese assaults near Khe Sanh. The Marines said they killed 230 of the enemy.

"The war has intensified," said Gen. William C. Westmoreland, "but the enemy is not doing well militarily. They've had no military victories."

After four days of hard fighting on the outskirts of Saigon, the South Vietnamese said they had wiped out the last Viet Cong pockets in Gia Dinh, on the northern side of the city, and retaken two thirds of the Phu Lam residential area on the southwest side of the city.

In Phu Lam, four miles from downtown Saigon, government marines were advancing from the south while rangers pushed in from the north, trying to dig out a Viet Cong force strengthened by 100 or more reinforcements during the night.

U.S. gunship helicopters fired rockets into buildings from which enemy snipers were laying down sharp barrages of small arms and rocket fire into street intersections.

Senate Okays Bill to Help Poor Buy Homes and Rent Apartments

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has passed a $5 billion housing bill containing a major new program to help poor families buy homes or rent apartments.

A 67-4 vote Tuesday sent the bill to the House where a Banking subcommittee already has approved legislation of similar scope.

Sponsors voiced confidence the measure will be sent to President Johnson before final adjournment, although they forecast some trouble for it in the House floor debate.

Johnson issued a statement applauding Senate approval of what he called "the largest and most comprehensive housing bill in the history of our nation."

The bill's key feature authorizes broad new federal subsidies to help low-income families buy or rent homes.

The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, leader of the Poor People's Campaign here, said the measure would go a long way toward meeting his group's housing goals.

The administration figures the new subsidies should make possible 85,000 starts on new and rehabilitated units available for

Kennedy Is Stunned in Oregon

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy has scored an Oregon upset to renege his campaign for the White House, and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy has conceded defeat in a Democratic presidential primary he once said he could not afford to lose.

The Democratic rivals turned today to California where they do primary battle again next Tuesday—and where the Oregon surprise is likely to echo.

Richard M. Nixon scored a 72 per cent runaway on the Republican ballot, and said that showing virtually eliminated the possibility that his drive for the GOP presidential nomination could be derailed.

The derailling was done on the Democratic side, where McCarthy was capturing 44 per cent of the vote to Kennedy's 38 per cent.

McCarthy said that should silence people who question his credentials as a real contender for the nomination, and have asked whether he will wind up supporting Kennedy or Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Humphrey was an absent beneficiary of Kennedy's Oregon setback, even though he never set a campaigning foot in the state.

Kennedy argued across Oregon that Humphrey is his real rival for the nomination. The vice president came to the race too late to enter the primaries, but he has been criss-crossing the nation, working to line up convention delegate support.

The Oregon outcome is likely to make that quest easier.

Humphrey was receiving 5 per cent of the Oregon vote on write-in ballots. President Johnson was on the ballot, although he has spurned renomination, and got 13 per cent.

Administration loyalists, marshaled by organized labor, promoted Johnson votes in a campaign they hoped would benefit Humphrey.

The Democratic decision awarded McCarthy 35 nominating votes, while Nixon captured 18 GOP delegates. The primary binds them for two ballots, until released, or until the winners fail to secure 35 per cent of the convention vote.

The Oregon count was proceeding slowly as votes were tallied on a crowded ballot bigger than a newspaper page. This was the Democratic lineup with 1,787 of 2,599 precincts counted:

McCarthy 81,188 for 44 per cent; Kennedy 70,645 for 38 per cent; Johnson 23,649 or 13 per cent; Humphrey 9,755, or 5 per cent.

Nixon's overwhelming vote read this way:

Nixon 110,512 for 72 per cent, California Gov. Ronald Reagan 33,763, or 22 per cent, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller 8,236 write-in votes for 5 per cent.

Sen. Morse Just Might Lose Election

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse's vote margin over former Congressman Robert Duncan dropped to under 1,500 today and the veteran's hold on his Senate seat was in grave question.

Counting in Oregon's primary election moved slowly but the biggest block of unreported votes was in Multnomah County (Portland) where Duncan was ahead and inching into a slightly stronger position.

With 2,170 of 2,599 precincts reported it was Morse 130,667 and Duncan 129,463. A third candidate, Phil McAlmond, had 13,390.

Morse, a strong-willed, sharp-tongued former law school dean who served two Senate terms as a Republican, is in his second term as a Democrat. This is the first time he ever faced a serious challenge in a primary.

Here is another example of bridge astigmatism which causes a player to overlook the fact that his partner is a living, breathing human being who can make decisions of his own.

North had 15 high card points and a lot of honor cards. He might well have made a two no-trump response. After all, in standard American bidding the two no-trump response shows 13 to 15 points, but North liked his hand.

We have no real quarrel with his three no-trump response. Everyone is entitled to overbid a trifle on occasion.

We have a real quarrel with his five heart bid. North had told his full story and just a little more when he responded three no-trump. His partner had heard this three no-trump call and had chosen to go to four hearts. South wasn't trying for a slam. He just didn't like no-trump and did have two good five card major suits.

East played his ace of clubs on the first trick. He continued by cashing his ace of spades and since there is never any way to eat the ace of trumps, South was down one.

As is so frequently the case, North who was solely responsible for the debacle, blamed South: "Why shouldn't you just let me play in three no-trump? I would have made it."

South replied, "Right, but how could I tell that you had three stoppers in clubs? In any event, you should have passed to four hearts."

South was right. If South were really interested in a slam he could have bid something other than four hearts. It didn't matter, anyway. North had nothing extra to show and no excuse for his five heart bid.

The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
Pass	1 N.T.	Pass	5 ♥

You, South, hold:

♠ 9 7 3 ♥ A 8 ♦ 9 7 4 2 ♣ 10 9 8 7

What do you do now?

A—Bid two hearts. You don't like no-trump at all.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You bid two hearts and your partner raises to three hearts. What do you do now?

Answer Tomorrow

In May of 1967, Secretary of State Kelly Bryant and Mrs. Bryant conceived a plan of accumulating an art collection for the State, featuring paintings of Arkansas scenes by Arkansas artists. They proposed that these paintings be hung permanently in the State Capitol.

Today Mr. William B. Shoemaker of Mountain Home, Arkansas presented to Secretary of State Kelly Bryant an additional oil painting to be added to the original collection started by Mr. and Mrs. Bryant. Mr. Shoemaker's painting was entitled THE OLD ZINC MILL AT RUSH (Marion County), which was painted in 1966, and first shown in Little Rock in 1967, at the Regional Exhibition of the Arkansas State Festival of Arts.

THE OLD ZINC MILL AT RUSH depicts the time when zinc was first discovered. It was first thought to be a diamond mine, but upon getting a geologist to come in and inspect it, it was discovered to be an extremely rich vein of zinc. World War I caused the price of zinc to soar, and speculators and geologists came in and started mining and found a 65 percent vein of very rich ore. Around the mining operation a boom town sprang up. By the end of 1918, there were around 5,000 people living and working in the area. The ore was mined, and they built crushers and grinders, and at that time they hauled the finished crushed ore over the mountains nine miles to Buffalo City, across the White River on a ferry, and shipped it out on the Missouri-Pacific Railway. At the termination of the war, zinc prices fell to such a level that it was unprofitable to carry on the operation. All mining actually stopped and people began to drift away until today there are only approximately six families living in the area. At one time, the town boasted a department store, hotel restaurant, a dance hall and possibly a saloon. About 1959, they shored up the old mill, and reopened two of the mines, but that was short-lived, and at present, it is not being used at all.

Mr. Shoemaker and his wife are amateur archeologists, and in searching for artifacts went into the valley and saw the ruins of the mine in 1957. At that time the old mill was so dilapidated you could scarcely tell what it was.

Mr. Shoemaker was born in Cullman, Alabama on December 8, 1908. He attended public schools there, and the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts. Upon finishing there during the depression years, he went immediately into commercial art, and was art director for 3 organizations before ultimately opening his Studio of Design. After completing his military duty during World War II, he attended the Seventh Street Art Center in Los Angeles, and later returned to Chicago to operate a studio again, prior to coming to Arkansas in 1956. He now resides with his wife in Mountain Home, Arkansas.

Long Distance Calling Now Bigger Bargain For You Than Ever

Your long distance calling to other Arkansas cities and towns is now an even bigger bargain than ever before.

Reductions in intrastate calling rates offer you more hours each day and week to make your calls to points inside Arkansas at lower "evening" and "night" rates.

You can call at the reduced "evening" rates beginning at 5 p.m. on weekdays (Mondays through Fridays), and at the even lower "night" rates after 7 p.m. on weekdays and all day on Saturdays, Sundays and five special holidays (New Year's Day, July 4, Labor Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas Day).

In addition, a new "early morning" rate applies from 12 midnight to 7 a.m. every day and allows you to make a three-minute, station-to-station long distance call between points inside Arkansas for a maximum of only 40 cents.

These reductions coincide with those made for interstate calls last year, and will result in a saving of almost $1 million annually for Arkansas telephone users.

So, there's no need now to put off family calling, or those pleasant long distance visits with old friends who are out of town. Now, more than ever, long distance is the next best thing to being there.

Mills Meets, Talks With Poor Marchers

WASHINGTON (AP)—About 15 persons participating in the Poor People's campaign met with Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., Tuesday and both sides reported having an amicable discussion.

The group, which has been keeping Mills under what it calls nonviolent surveillance, achieved its objective of seeing Mills but there was no agreement on the major demands of the organization.

"We feel we've won quite a victory," said Mrs. Mararette Washington, head of the Cincinnati branch of the National Welfare Rights Organization. "Mr. Mills did come and speak to a group of us."

The conversation was mostly about provisions in the Social Security Act to freeze at the present percentage level the number of dependent children in each state admitted to the federally aided program for dependent children, and setting standards for work programmed to be instituted for adult members of families receiving such aid.

Both sides agreed that Mills had told the delegation pending legislation will postpone these provisions during the year beginning July 1.

Mills said the group apparently did not know the extent of the postponements planned. "They came here unprepared and misinformed," he said.

The marchers distributed literature demanding repeal of the Social Security provisions in question, and calling for a national guaranteed family income of $4,000 and federal funds to create three million jobs immediately.

This was the first direct confrontation of any of the marchers with Mills, who is chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee. They have been keeping groups around the apartment house where he lives and one detachment spent the night there in the rain.

Mills said he left home for his office on schedule Tuesday morning and the marchers apparently did not see him. He said when the small group arrived at his office seeking an appointment, he told aides to show some of them in immediately.

Rockefeller Feels Bill Has Chance

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said Tuesday he was not discouraged over the status of his bill to legalize the sale of mixed drinks.

The bill was scheduled to come to a vote today in the Arkansas Senate.

"However, I'm not jumping up and down in my chair with optimism," he said. "Had it come up yesterday (Monday) I think it would have been defeated."

The governor said that if the special legislative session failed to enact any new taxes "this would have to be branded a disappointing meeting of the legislature."

And, the governor added, "If they end up doing nothing, one must say it was punitive, political chicanery."

Rockefeller said that he would be disappointed if nothing were done to bolster state revenues in this session. He said, however, that the 1969 regular legislative session could prevent serious trouble by coming to grips with the problem early enough.

He said the real financial pinch wouldn't show itself until after the first of the year.

He said a long-range study was being planned to determine the needs of the state in future years and that he would use this study in determining the amount of money he would like to obtain through a bond issue.

Various state agencies have given him lists of needs which

Bombs Found In Motel Fire at Marianna

MARIANNA, Ark. (AP)—State and local authorities continued their investigation today into a fire early Tuesday at the Holiday Sands Motel here in which 16 homemade incendiary bombs were found.

Sheriff S. C. Langston of Lee County said he had found no motive for the fire, which heavily damaged eight of the 22 units at the motel and resulted in damage to seven to 10 others.

"We have found no motive of vengeance and we've had no racial problems in the county," Langston said.

A passing truck driver saw the fire and alerted persons staying at the motel. Langston said none of the eight units that were heavily damaged was occupied.

Langston said authorities found evidence of 16 homemade bombs, made of quart-sized beer bottles filled with a mixture of gasoline and kerosene and with rag fuses. Five were intact.

The sheriff said the bombs had been placed in water heater cubicles at the rear of the units. Each cubicle services two units.

E. E. Smith and his son operate the motel.

Langston's office, the Marianna fire department, the state fire marshal and the Criminal Investigation Division of the State Police are investigating.

Langston said no estimate had been made of the damage.

would require a bond issue of $225 million, he said, but "I don't think that's realistic."

The governor also indicated he had no intention of formally campaigning for his party's nomination for governor. He said he planned to open his campaign in August in the small Southwest Arkansas town of Winthrop.

— Hope (Ark.) Star photos

Your editor made these pictures Sunday, publication being delayed until today because of space limitations. Photo above shows one of the casualties at Nashville when a line squall uprooted many trees and damaged several houses Saturday night. This home is a couple of miles north on the Nashville-Murfreesboro highway. The family, being absent, could not be identified. But apparently no one in the Nashville "blow" was hurt, and traffic was heavy Sunday as crowds turned out to inspect property damage.

You recall the concrete staircase leading down to the docks from the dock office of Swaha Lodge at Narrows Lake—well, it wasn't there Sunday, buried under a record high water level. Picture shows boat bobbing against the floor of the office—and a day or two earlier the water was four inches deep on the office floor. Water poured over the spillway of Narrows Dam for the third time in history, but we missed that "shot", the lake being just level with the spillway Sunday. Swaha Lodge is now operated by Gene Regnier of Illinois, who last year bought out O. B. Poland, long-time operator.

The flooded landing caused this traffic jam as curious crowds came down the hill to view the high water.

Stock Buying, Selling Cost Under Probe

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Securities and Exchange Commission has launched a full-scale inquiry into the cost of buying and selling stocks and suggested an interim cut in charges by the New York Stock Exchange by Sept. 15.

Although aimed primarily at reducing charges paid by mutual funds which buy and sell thousands of shares of stock at a time, the SEC's drive to reduce costs also could save money for the small buyer.

An interim schedule the agency suggested to the New York Stock Exchange would cut costs on purchases of as little as 100 shares. As an option, the NYSE could choose to permit discounts on purchases and sales exceeding $50,000.

There was no immediate reaction from NYSE officials and SEC spokesmen said they had no idea which option—if either—the exchange would choose.

Under existing law, the SEC could order its interim schedule into effect if the exchange balked. But the exchange could appeal any such order to the federal courts.

Thinks Ample Flesh Reflects Intellect

CHICAGO (AP) — The beautiful people are the bounteous ones, says a psychiatrist who has called for a halt to the "cult of emaciation."

Dr. Thaddeus Kosciuszko of Northwestern University pumps for the pump in an article in the magazine Chicago Medicine.

Ample flesh, writes Dr. Kosciuszko, reflects "intellect and soul" and the inner life of corpulent people "unfolds itself in flowering of social action and love."

His list of beautiful people includes Buddha, Winston Churchill, President Grover Cleveland, trumpeter Al Hirt, Santa Claus, actor Peter Ustinov, and Mayor Richard J. Daley.

He said the fight-fat fuss was caused by life insurance companies and doctors who practice internal medicine. They have created, he said, a "false image of beauty."

But he sees a thin thread of hope.

Despite "threats and cajolery," he said, many persons "behave with good sense," eating well and flourishing "both spiritually and physically."

Strange Way to Get Haircut

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)

Gov. David F. Cargo of New Mexico showed up at the Albuquerque airport Tuesday to meet Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York with a ring of singed hairline and a red spot beside his left eye.

"I got the darnedest haircut you ever heard of last night," Cargo said.

Cargo said his stove had been under repair and he turned on the only burner that was supposed to have been operating. Flames shot out of the stove

World Press Works Over Americans

LONDON (AP) — The United States got a going over in the world press last week, with foreign pundits accusing Americans of lack of interest in events abroad and lack of knowledge about poverty at home.

John Pilger, roving reporter of the London Daily Mirror, came to the conclusion that "to burning him.

be poor in America is to be un-American."

"To most middle-class Americans, the poor and their distress are unknown," said Pilger. "If an ordinary white family is not eating its fill, then the cause is obviously drink or lack of ambition..."

Louis Heren of the Times of London finds that the American presidency makes sense "only when it is seen to be a latter-day version of a British medieval monarchy...as it existed for a century or more after the signing of the Magna Carta in 1215."

Dall Sketch writer Sarah Drummond decided after a visit to New York that "New York girls aren't a patch on London girls fashionwise."

"They dress to conventional, and all too like momma," she said. "Who wants to look elegant at 18?"

West Germany's Frankfurter Rundschau denounced the recent rejection by the U.S. Senate of a proposal to ban mail order sales of rifles and shotguns.

Citing the assassinations of John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the paper charged that a powerful arms lobby sways legislators in Congress and manages to shelve attempts to place tighter control on the sale of firearms.
